Ride the bike of your dreams!

Save up to 40% compared to purchasing. Cycling is good for your health. But it's also good for your wallet. A company bike can be up to 40% cheaper than buying one. And why? Because the conversion rate for the bike is deducted from the gross salary, resulting in a tax saving.

First things first:

- Tax benefits: The gross taxable income is reduced.
- The workplace commuting allowance can be invoked.
- Includes an all-round insurance package.
- Would you like to purchase your bike after 36 months? We will be happy to submit an offer to you on request at the end of the contract.
- Take advantage of our network of over 6,000 bike dealers.
- Beat the traffic jams and get fit!

It's as easy as this:

Sign up via the link provided by your employer.

Once your employer has approved your registration, you receive an order code.

Take your order code to the bike dealer and pick a bike of your choice, together with an all-round insurance package.

Once you have accepted the addendum to Contract of Employment online, you're free to cycle off on your new bike immediately. Let's ride!
